News and Notes

Four players in the Grande Pickem went undefeated in the Wildcard round, 6-0, Dan, Doug, Erick and Rik. Congratulations!

The home teams only won twice and lost four. But when you analyze it, CAR, JAX and PIT only hosted home games because they won their division not because they were the best team. In the next round could we be looking at an even split?

The Wildcard weekend produced six quality games. The Rams started strong then failed to convert a fourth down giving momentum to the Panthers. The second half was a back and forth affair. Stafford leading the Rams to a come from behind victory.

At halftime the Packers looked like they were advancing to the divisional round but they forgot to finish the game. The Bears put up 25 points in the fourth quarter for a come from behind victory.

If it was only possible for one man to carry a team to a Super Bowl victory, that man would be Josh Allen. He put the Bills on his back and carried them into the divisional round. The Jaguars need to evaluate Trevor Lawrence's performance. In my opinion, he would make a fine backup QB but his play is uninspiring at this point in his career.

The 49ers and Kyle Shanahan are doing better than expected considering all their injuries. If they had all their starters I would consider them a front runner to the Lombardi trophy. The Eagles offense just had too many issues this year and it caught up with them.

The Chargers have a championship defense but their offensive line is subpar and it showed by giving up six sacks. The Patriots are this year's Cinderella team, will the clock strike midnight? Mike Vrabel certainly has this team convinced they are winners.

Houston's defense could take them to their first Super Bowl. That defense scored twice against an over matched Steeler offense. Pittsburgh, it is frustrating that they can't see the writing on the wall, Mike Tomlin will not win another championship and at this point it looks like he won't even win another playoff game. I have known this since 2011 and his loss to Denver in the playoffs. They have wasted fourteen years and several talented teams but stick to your "but we've only had three coaches... argument. (How many championships do they have in fourteen years?)

SF TE George Kittle Achilles tear. BUF WR Gabe Davis Achilles. LAR QB Matthew Stafford sprained finger. HOU WR Nico Collins concussion.

Matchup	Score	Notes
LAR-CAR	34-31	LAR up 17-7 and in the red zone, a failed 4 th down conversion signaled a momentum shift. The Rams would fall behind in the game and Stafford would lead a come from behind victory. CAR backed into the playoffs but put up a fight til the end.
GB-CHI	27-31	GB up 21-3 at halftime collapsed in the 2 nd half scoring 1 TD while CHI QB Williams led a 25 point 4 th qtr comeback.
BUF-JAX	27-24	BUF QB Allen showing why he is the reigning MVP, carrying the Bills to a come from behind win. JAX ran all over the Bills D and another mediocre performance from QB Lawrence.
SF-PHI	23-19	SF despite Purdy throwing 2 INT's they came back to win the game. PHI offense started well then went ice cold.
LAC-NE	3-16	LAC Herbert sacked six times and didn't break 100 yds passing until second half. NE defense took advantage of Charger weak offensive line.

HOU-PIT	31-6	HOU defense scored two TD's and smothered the Steelers offense. PIT defense kept them in the game for three quarters but as Troy Aikman put it, "they ran out of gas".
